FOREWORD

We go through life looking for a light—a beacon to guide our actions, to teach us, to enrich our existence. One of the brightest lights in our lives has been this past year at E. H. S.

The pages of the 1959 LE SOUVENIR will keep bright the memories of trials, toils, and friendships—and a way of life once gloriously ours.

SCHOOL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

First row: Mrs. Albert Doolittle, Grade Mothers; Mrs. Joseph Jem-
ing, Treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Brown,
First Vice President; Mrs. William

The Home School Association is composed of parents and teachers working together for the welfare of the student body.

The money raised by their annual project, the Spring Fiesta, provides several scholarships for deserving students.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated: Eli Allan Sherwood, Edward S. Menapace, Vice-President; Claude E. Glaser, Jr., President; Ellsworth G. D. Paterson. Standing: Michael A. Russo, Superintendent of Buildings; Dr. Terence C. Donahue, Superintendent of Schools; Everett J. Thielen; Kenneth L. King, Secretary; Ramon H. Sayd; George R. Farnham; Morgan S. Fellows, Assistant Superintendent of Schools. Not pictured: Donald C. Tiedemann.

During the six years we have spent at Eastchester we have evidenced the continual improvement and growth of our school. The organization responsible for this advancement is the Board of Education. Through their efforts the construction of a new addition to Eastchester has commenced. By next September, with the work completed there will be two separate administrative units, one consisting of grades seven through nine and the other grades ten through twelve.

FACULTY

Light and learning resemble each other, as both are emanated and absorbed. The source of both our academic and extra-curricular learning at Eastchester is the faculty. Our patient, understanding faculty has been most important in preparing us for happy, useful lives.

CLASSES

"Good times were had by all." This sentiment is typical of Eastchester's underclassmen, for all have shining memories of the past year. The Sophomore's Winter Carnival Dance, the Student Council Elections, the Freshmen's Valentine Dance and the Junior Prom are just a few of the events which made this year gleam.

ACTIVITIES

Hardly a day of this past year went by which was not brightened by one of the varied extracurricular activities. The Student Council, the Leaders' Club, the Debating Club, the football, basketball, and baseball games, the issues of "The Eaglet," and the assemblies are only a few of the events which helped to make this year really shine for all of us.

Due to the spirit instilled into Eastchester's football team by our amiable Co-Captains, Carmine Marallo and Donald De Rosa, our team showed a great deal of improvement over the previous seasons.

Although they bettered their record of 1957, Eastchester's Football Squad of '58 did not attain the record expected of them. However, the two wins (one a startling upset against highly favored Scarsdale High School) and five losses does not actually give an accurate perspective of the team's caliber. A tough schedule, in which we faced a powerful opponent each week—plus key injuries to our very important linemen, Carmine Marallo and Al Napolitano, prevented us from the expected winning season. Among the players who led us on the gridiron were halfback Phil Kuczma who was selected to the All-Swisc and All-County teams. We were glad to welcome George Kelley, our new assistant coach, coming to us from Iona Prep

The Field Patrol maintains law and order
during our football games

Eastchester's pretty and vivacious cheerleaders are responsible for the exuberant spirit that is displayed at both football and basketball games

Elaine Hubich, Tina Dobrydn o, Cary Muldoon, Betsy Bosworth, Kathy Mihm, Nancy Hall, Angela Gondolfo, Vicki Blechta, Diane Lurie, Beverly Hume

The twirlers have been trained to give top notch performances with their precision work at football games and rallies.

Anne Marie Gress (Head Majorette), Pat Bracafello, Linda Foley, Mary Bell, Jill Cornell, Ellen Trupin, Rose Mary Lamlech.

VOLLEYBALL PLAYDAY TEAMS First row V. Stocker, C. Bates, D. Ubig, M. Jural, J. Simmons, S. Dadakis, J. Cornet, R. Gursky, K. Pump. Second row R. Rudd, J. LaManna, S. Boom, P. Zorzo, B. Bosworth, C. Taube, R. King, P. Phelps, M. Price, V. Trasoff. Third row C. Sath, K. Olsen, S.

The Girls' Leaders Club provides an opportunity for girls to assist in gym classes and in intramurals. Some of these leaders have qualified, through a new program, to serve as officials in outside games. Also initiated this year were interscholastic playdays in volleyball, basketball, and softball, with Pelham, Edgemont, Scarsdale, Lincoln, Tuckahoe, and Rye Neck. These playdays, along with an expanded intramural program, have increased our awareness of good sportsmanship and teamwork.

SUBSTITUTE CHEERLEADERS AND MANAGERS: V. Venditto, J. Hosmer, M. Cannon, V. Stocker, J. Smith

BASKETBALL SQUAD First row: G. Mavran, T. Creavy (Co-Captain), F. DiCarlo (Co-Captain), R. Allen. Second row: W. Alton, S. Block, P. Kucma, A. Vialina, H. Thompson. Third row: J. Carlo, C. McCue, J.

Co-Captains Tom Creavy and Fred DiCarlo

With a resounding start, featuring back-to-back victories over Rye Neck and Tuckahoe, the basketball spirit of E. H. S. reached a fever pitch. Unfortunately our success on the court did not last. Only one more victory was to be ours—a thriller over Hastings.

Mr. Petti's J. V. came out with a six-four record which entitles them to a second place berth in SWIAC.

Eastchester	41	Rye Neck	38

Water Alien fighting with a Rye player for possession of the ball

Phil Kuczma 14 agape tensely watches as F DiCarlo attempts to elude
the grasping hand of the opponent

Tony Violino 30 gets off one of his patented jump shots which adds 2 points to the total

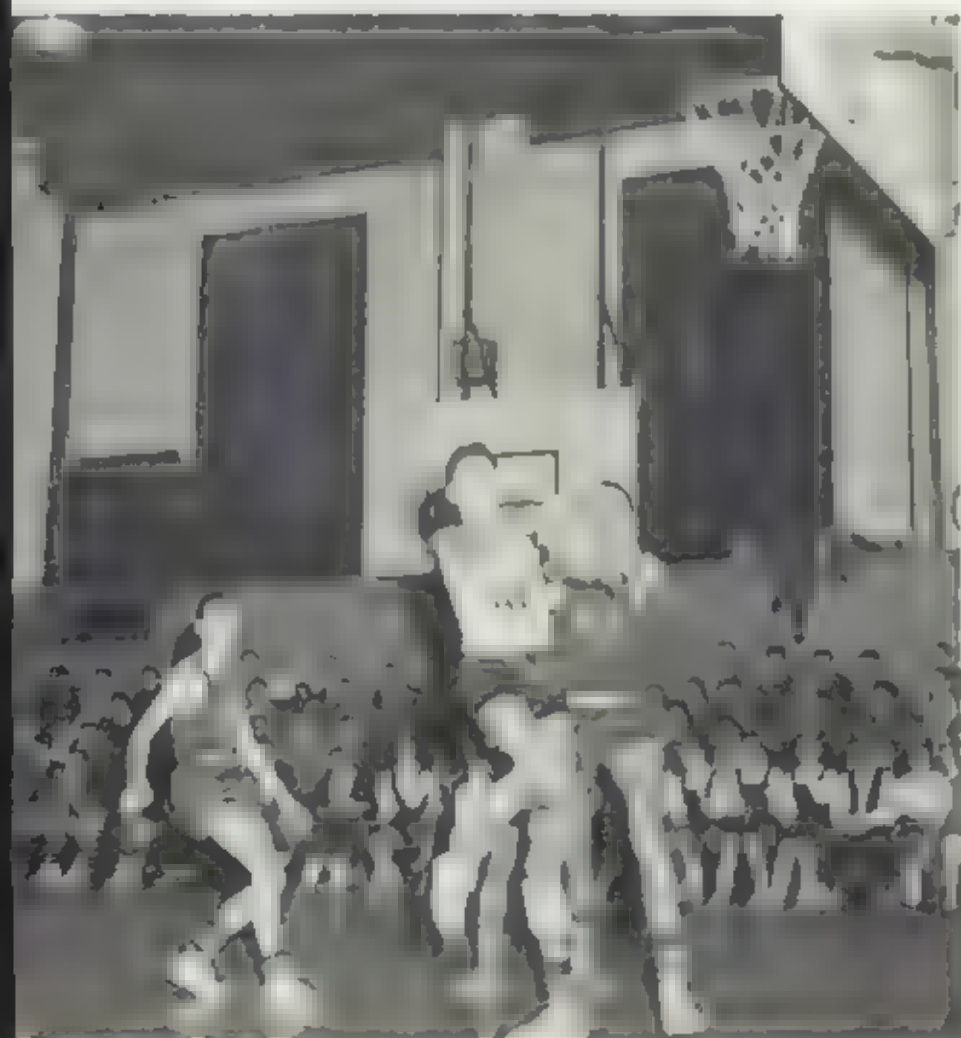

Fred D Carlo 34 sinks an important basket a hour way to victory over Hastings

Jim Carlo clutches ball unwilling to yield even an inch to the persistent opponent

Whistle blows! Game starts. Eastchester loses the jump

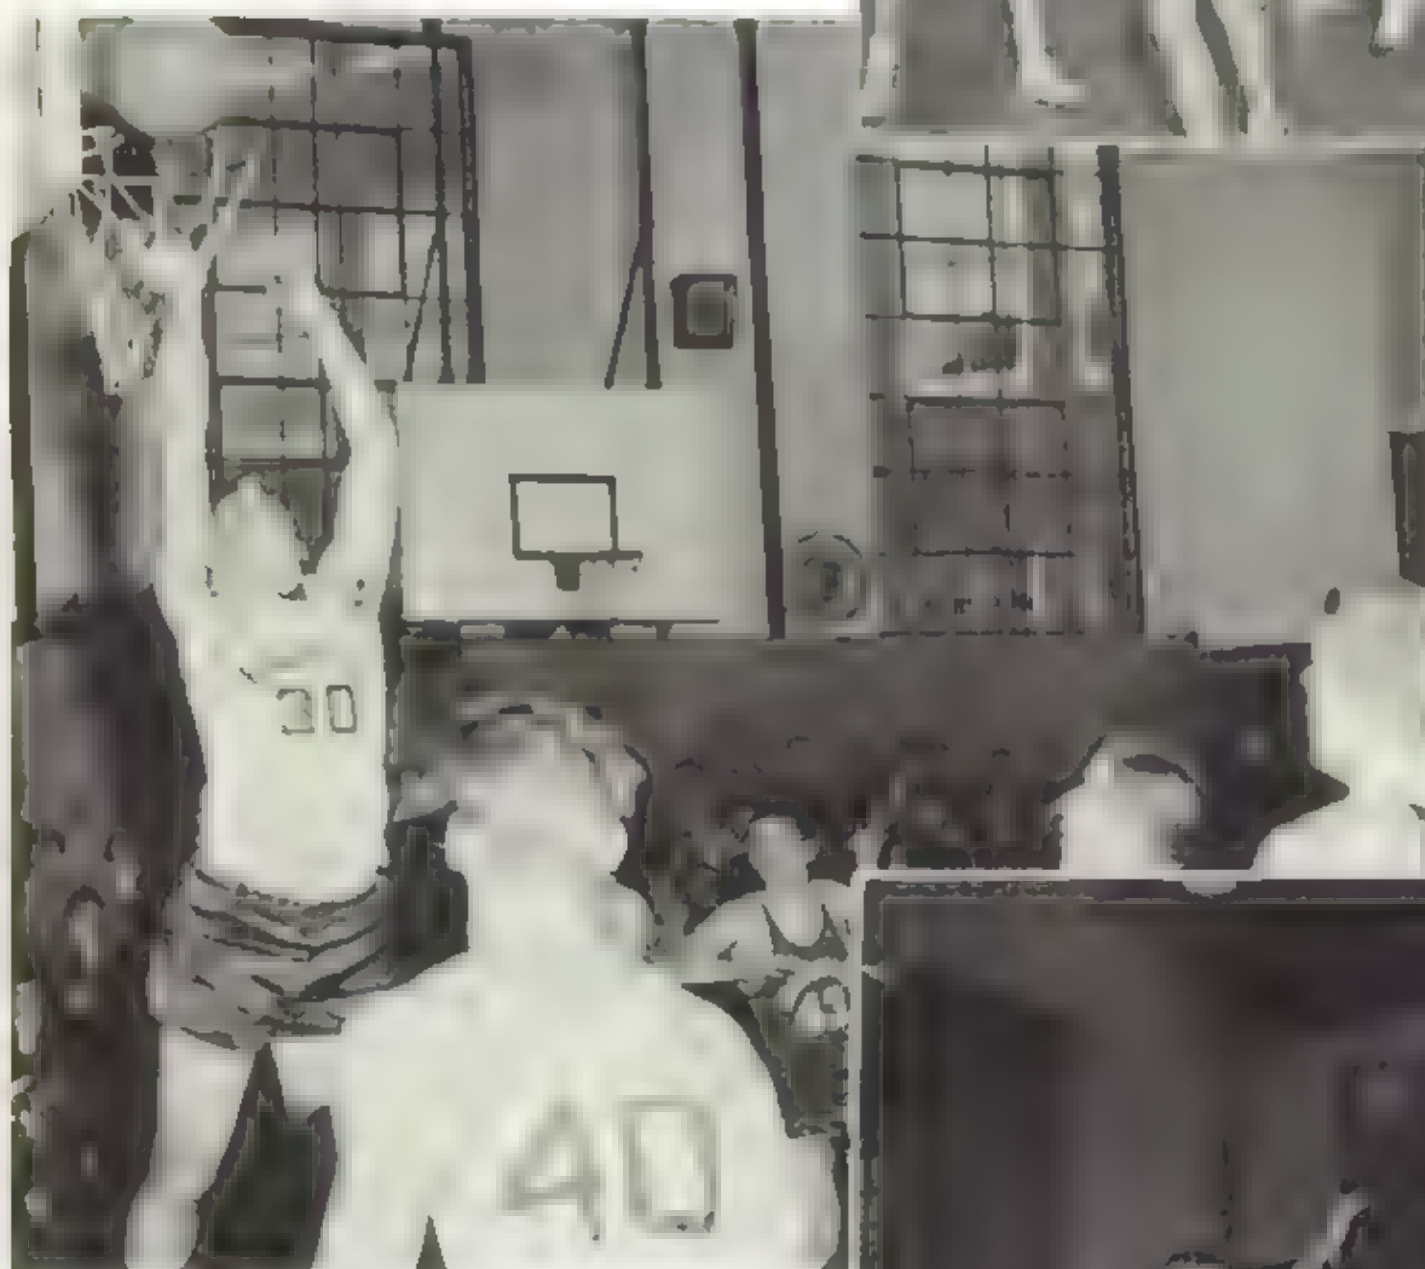

Jim Carlo (42) gets by a Hasting defender for an easy shot

Steve Block (44) sinks a layup while Scarsdale players look on befuddled

Tony Violino 30 lobs ball to backcourt enabling Eastchester to set up another offensive play

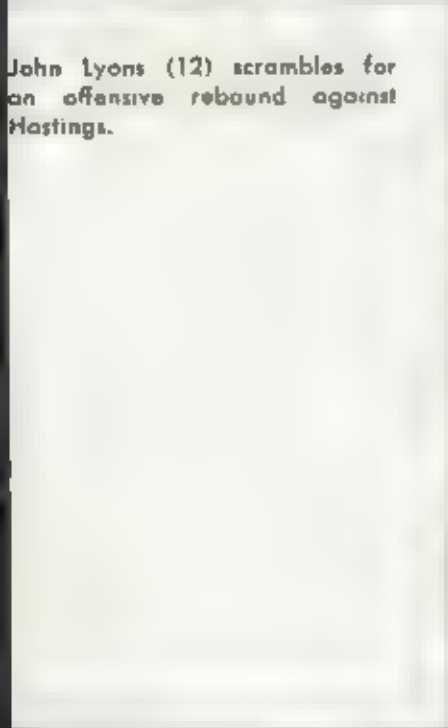

Tony Violino's unusual position seems to have amazed his fellow players, but does not prevent him from sinking the basket

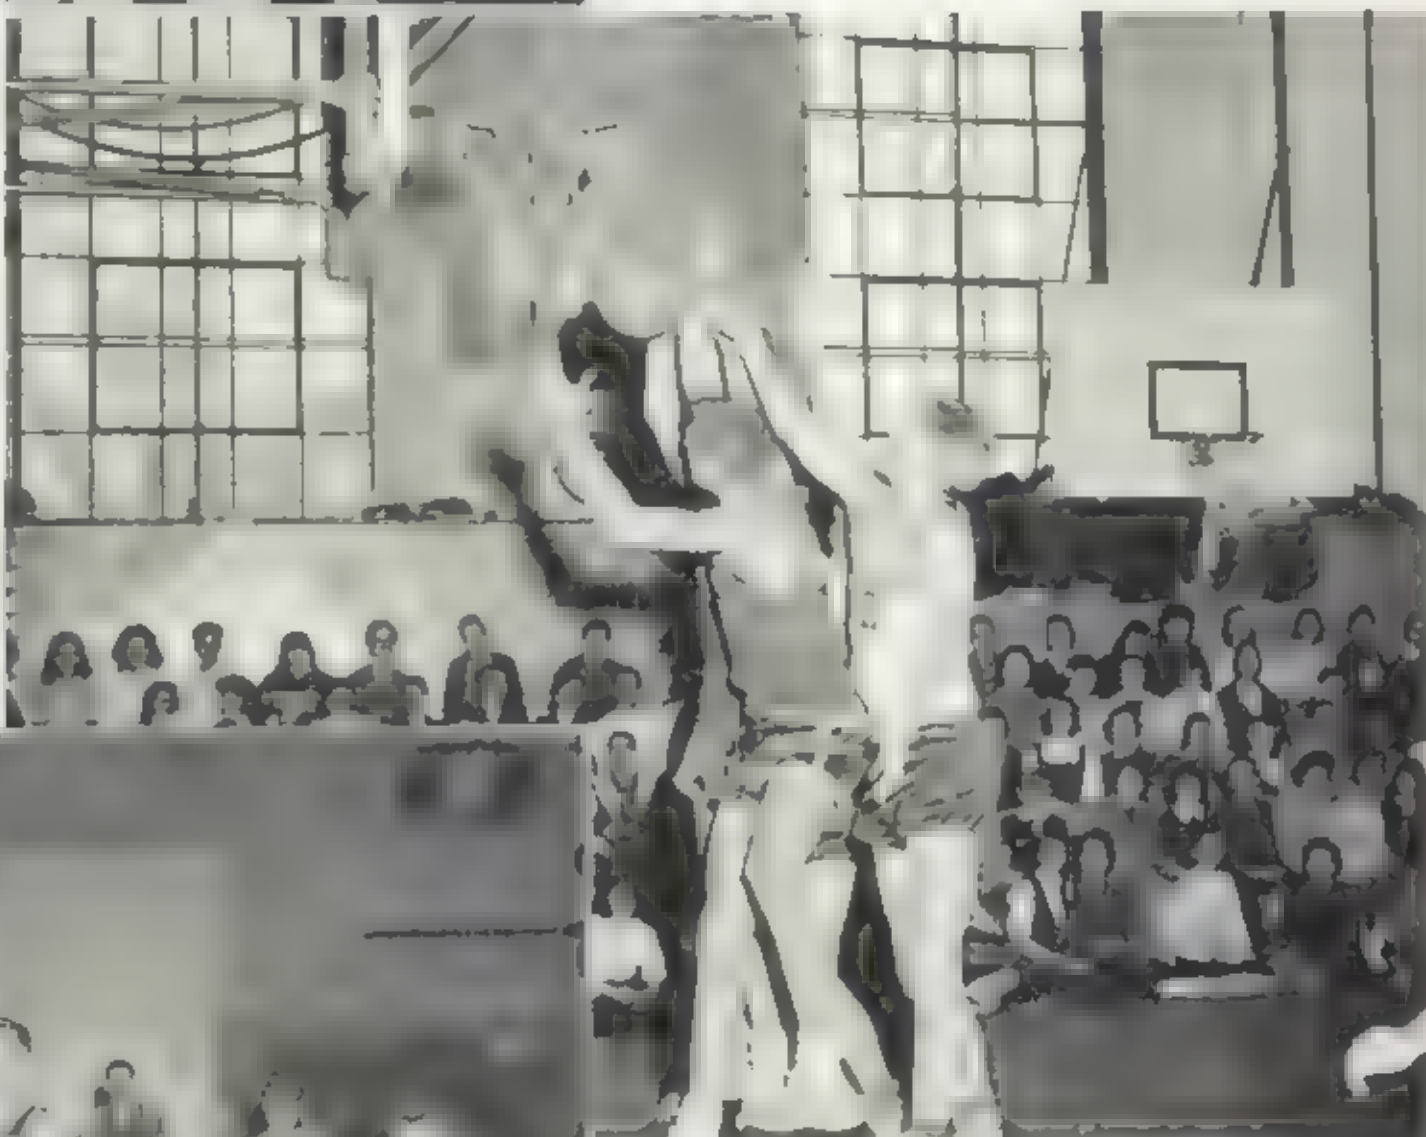

Walter Altan (24) after grabbing an offensive rebound, is ready to spring back and make the shot good for 2 points

Walter Altan (24), making a valiant effort to deflect shot by a Scarsdale offender

John Lyons (12) scrambles for an offensive rebound against Hastings.

Jim Carlo 42, seems to be traveling faster than the ball on his way to sinking another driving layup.

Dear
 friends to our friends
 for ever

and a little luck next year. I'll never forget
Mr. Haber. I'll
remember you
forever.
Haber

I have been thinking of you and wondering how you are getting on. I hope you are well and happy. I have been very busy lately, but I will try to write to you more often. I love you and miss you very much.
